GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Beneficiary

A person or organisation that receives a gift from a will.

Bequest

A gift in a will.

Codicil

An addition or supplement that explains, modifies or revokes an existing will.

Estate

The total sum of all assets including possession, property and money.

Executor

A persona or company (such as a firm of solicitors) named in a will who administers the estate of the person who has died.

Inheritance tax (IHT)

A tax levied on estates over a certain value. Donations to charity are exempt from inheritance tax, so leaving a gift to Curve can reduce the overall tax payable on your estate

Legacy

Another name for a gift in a will.

Probate

The process of officially proving a will so that the executors can begin to administer an estate.
